New York Girls Walk 25 Miles to Win Waiver at Lenox.

On a wager Miss Elizabeth K. Hoyt and Miss Dorothy Fowler of New York walked twenty-two miles in five hours and a half at Lenox, Mass.

They had taken a bet that they couldn't make the distance in six hours. Mrs. Hoyt went along behind them in her auto.

Girl in Boy's Clothes Travelled 10,000 Miles in Four Years.

After masquerading as a boy for four years and travelling 10,000 miles, "Clyde" Dixon was betrayed by "his" small feet at Fort Worth, Tex., and arrested.

Miss Dixon is eighteen years old and lives at Chicago. Part of her journey has been in parlor cars and part in "side door" sleepers.

1,000 Co-Eds Victim of Mean Trick at an Ohio University.

One thousand co-eds endeavored to rise and go about their duties after chapel exercises in the Northern University at Ada, O., but those who succeeded did it at the expense of part of their clothing.

During the night some one had poured molasses over all the seats. No classes were held during the entire day.

Daughters "Apologize" and Father, Away 15 Years, Returns Home.

When Cornelius Schroeder tore a hole in his trousers fifteen years ago at Inman, Kan., and asked his wife to mend them she replied that if he wanted them mended he could do it himself.

Cornelius did it himself and, leaving the house, declared he would never return until his wife and four daughters apologized. He wasn't heard of again until a short time ago when a daughter saw his name in a Kansas City paper. His wife has been dead some time, but the daughters apologized and he has gone to live with them.

Secretary Von Meyer's Sister Registered to Vote at Lenox.

Miss Heloise Meyer, sister of George Von L. Meyer, Secretary of the Navy, is the first registered woman voter in Lenox, Mass.

She drove to the Town Hall in her auto, proved that she could read and write to the registry board, and her name was entered. Women can vote only for school committee at the spring town meetings.

Protest Harem and Hobbie Skirts and High Heels.

"No harem nor hobbie skirts, nor high heels," was the protest of Dr. Louise C. Parlington of Boston in a paper laying down laws for women at the W. C. T. U. in Milwaukee.

She insisted on clean homes and bodies, exercise in the open air, and as much care in the breeding and welfare of children as is given to improving stock in horses and hens.

Dr. John B. Palmer Dead.

Dr. John B. Palmer, eye, ear, throat and nose specialist, died at his home, No. 33 West One Hundred and Third street, last night from heart disease. He had been in poor health for several weeks. Dr. Palmer was forty-seven years old.

THOMAS DENIES THAT HE WILL DIRECT NEW THEATRE.

Augustus Thomas last evening denied reports that he will be director of the New Theatre when it opens its doors in 1912. Reports have been circulated that the playwright would have control of the second New Theatre venture. In regard to these Mr. Thomas dictated this statement to The World:

I have not accepted the directorship of the New Theatre. The misconception that I have done so is perhaps due to the fact that its founders are complimentary enough to still ask my opinion upon some of their plans.

While this is the extent to which Mr. Thomas can be quoted, it is learned from some of his friends that he has declined absolutely to direct the new venture. Mr. Thomas has several engagements that prevent his giving his entire time to any one theatre next year.
